Dear All

We are all expecting great things as the Queen's Platinum Jubilee is fast approaching, a four day weekend (2nd June to 5th June 2022) to celebrate the 70 years of Queen Elizabeth's reign.

To mark this special time, many different activities and events are planned across our communities. Amongst them, a Special Group Service will be held at Essendon at 10am and we welcome everyone. The Queen is absolutely applauded for her devoted sense of duty and faith.

In the book of Joshua Chapter 1, the Lord told Joshua three times to be strong and courageous. The extent and the length of the task ahead, the pressures of leading the whole nation of Israel were vast and overwhelming. However, God was not calling Joshua without enabling him. The needed spiritual strength and direction was going to come from God. Isaiah 40:31 "..but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary ;they shall walk and not faint". What Joshua had to do was to answer the call of leading the Nation of Israel into the land of Canaan. Sometimes when God calls us, it's a question of choice, sometimes we feel inadequate for the task or we are faced with so many obstacles. There can be a real battle of faith too but be encouraged. God never asks us to do anything without giving us the power to do it or people to walk alongside us. Joshua was led throughout his assignment.

I understand in our different walks of life we have been inspired by different people, but this time let us also remember the inspiration and encouragement given to us by the Queen. May we celebrate!

I end by quoting one of the Collect prayers from the Church of England website:

Gracious God, we give you thanks for the reign of your servant Elizabeth, our Queen, and for the example of loving and faithful service which she has shown among us.

Help us to follow her example of dedication and to commit our lives to you and to one another, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Revd Theresa Musiwacho

The Parish Magazine is going on-line

As part of the ongoing development of the Parish Magazine, we are now trialling during 2022 the option for subscribers and advertisers alike to be able to access the latest monthly offering both in hard copy and on-line.

Access to this month's and subsequent months' magazine can be gained by typing the following link into the address bar of your internet web browser:

www.begesford.co.uk/ParishMag

Not only will current subscribers and advertisers be able to access the magazine on-line, but this development will allow access to a much wider audience of readers and thus potential customers to our existing advertisers at no cost to them.

We hope that our current hard copy subscribers will take the opportunity to access the on-line version on occasions during the year to assist them in making a conscious decision on their preferred format going forward into 2023.

Please do not hesitate in coming back to our editor, Mike Wainwright, with any feedback, either positive or negative, on this progression, in order that we may take further steps in meeting the needs of our readers.

Adventure for Dementia.

Westward Ho! Sunday 8th May

Our adventure for dementia has begun. Hello from Westward Ho! (One of the only places in the world with an “!” in its name) at the end of our first week walking the SW Coastal Path for Alzheimer’s Society and Alzheimer’s research for my mum.

We started on Monday 2nd May from Minehead, walking across the edge of Exmoor then around the Taw & Torridge estuaries to Westward Ho! it’s now Sunday, 87 miles down only 563 more miles to go!

Blessed with a grey day, no wind, no rain, we walked 9 undulating miles along the edge of Exmoor to Porlock, after posing for our picture with the “hands” at the monument marking the start of the path

We followed the spectacular coastline, as the (no longer easy) path clung far too close to the edge, up and down the vertiginous cliffs and valleys to the highest point Great Hangman (1043ft). Vertigo got the better of me, without a helping hand I’d still be panicking, and have missed the breathtaking views! We could just make out Wales across the Bristol channel at the end. Mountain goat I am not!

Thank you for reading my story , and a huge thank you for your support.

BAYFORD PARISH COUNCIL.

To read the accounts, minutes and agendas just Google 'Bayford Parish Council' and follow the link to 'Minutes'.

Following the upsetting death of the beloved cat on Ashdene Road, I would like to assure parishioners that we are still pursuing ways to slow traffic through the village. We have to follow the procedures laid down by Herts Highways, which have proved to be extremely protracted. See Chairman's Report online.

Rose Triangle

The Parish Council is looking for ways to improve the appearance of the rose triangle. Over the last several years it has been gradually eroded by traffic.

We are considering putting bollards at the three corners, and granite sets to form a kerb along the edges.

It is not clear at present if we are able to undertake this work or whether this will be a job for HCC.

Verge Maintenance.

The provision date of 3rd July has been set for a working party to remove ivy and other maintenance on the Parish verges on Ashdene Road. Please meeting at Penny Royal (Buck's Alley) at 10am. All Welcome.

The next meeting: 18th July.

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Friday 3rd June

Bayford's Jubilee picnic will be held on the village green (opposite the Baker Arms) from 2pm to 5pm on Friday 3rd June. Ashdene Road from the Rose Triangle to the Memorial Hall will be shut from 1pm to 6pm for everyone's safety. Bring your own picnic; hot dogs, burgers and booze will be available from the pub and we'll be serving free tea, coffee and cake. Do join us! For more information call Caroline Fletcher on 07919 317212

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Celebrations in Bayford

Maureen and I are keen to make a small exhibition of Bygone Bayford for our afternoon celebration on the afternoon of 3rd June.

We would love to borrow any old photographs you have of the village (with your name on the back for their return). Much has changed over the years and it would be lovely for 'newcomers' to see photographs of how things used to be. Although we have both lived in the village for decades we sadly do not have many photographs so if you are able to help us to put together a decent display we would be very grateful.

Hertford and Ware Street Pastors

Sunday 24th April, at Bayford Family Service, we had a special visitor. David Elder, the coordinator of the Hertford and Ware Street Pastor team. He told us about their role of walking the streets late at night in both Ware and Hertford in all weathers. As the clubs get later opening hours to 3.00am, the Street Pastors walk the streets until the last person goes home and the town quietens down. Some people were surprised to learn that Street Pastors are all are volunteers and some of mature years (80 years!), that kindly give up their time to help people with a listening ear, a shoulder to cry on, a set of flip flops, waiting with young girls on their own, giving water to sober people up and getting into interesting conversation of why they do what they do. It's because they care. Imagine it was your son or daughter, worse for wear through drinking and are left alone. They come alongside and keep them safe until a parent arrives.

Matthew 25: 40: 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.' (NIV)

So next time you are out, and you see their navy-blue jackets with "Street Pastor" printed on the back, give them a cheery hello for their good work.
Heather Ross

St Mary's Church, Bayford

A huge, special thank you to over a dozen or so people who undertook the spring clean of St Mary's Church on 5th May. We have enjoyed a 'blitz' in earlier years but never to this extent.

Industry was incredible, steps and long ladders everywhere, vacuum cleaners, long poles with mops, dusters, polish and buckets of water. High walls were brushed and vacuumed to above window tops and at this height some for the first time in memory. Lights dusted and dud bulbs replaced, from a top of more ladder work.

To all who took part very many thanks and to Caroline for organising, plus providing tea and a splendid array of cake rewards. CET.

ESSENDON PARISH COUNCIL

The Annual Council meeting of the Parish Council was held on May 9th. Mike Brown stood down as chairman, and Ian Venables accepted the nomination to succeed him, with Rex Jones taking on vice chair. There was a vote of thanks to Mike in appreciation of his hard work and commitment as chair.

The council has been asked to publicise the Free Safe and Well Visit offered by Hertfordshire Fire and Rescue Service along with Hertfordshire County Council. Together they are working towards ensuring that every home in the county has working smoke detectors that are correctly situated. Anyone who feels that they would benefit from this service should phone Hertfordshire Fire and Rescue's Public Enquiry Line to arrange a visit -0300 1234 046.

If required, they will fit smoke detectors free of charge. These detectors ten year battery life. For full details see the letter in the PDF, Safe and Well Visit, the poster and the application form available on the Essendon Parish Council website <https://www.essendonpc.org.uk/>

The next meeting will be held on June 13th. Agendas will be available on the PC website, (<https://www.essendonpc.org.uk/>) and on noticeboards in the village. Dates for the meetings for the rest of 2022 are available on the website. Members of the public are welcome to attend all meetings.

Colin Rees, Churchwarden.

I was probably more surprised than anyone to be elected to the vacancy for churchwarden at St Mary's. I especially want to thank all those from Essendon Village who came to church to take an interest in the proceedings. I am aware that this ancient office is a great privilege and grateful to Anne Mitcheson for her long years of service. Together with Theresa, Paul, Sandie, & Colin, I intend to carry out the duties to the best of my ability.

Nick Pickard, Treasurer

I am very pleased indeed that Nick Pickard has kindly agreed to take over from me as Treasurer for St Mary's Church Essendon. We are very fortunate to have Nick to be in charge of our finances.

I am delighted that Nick will be taking over from me and wish him every success in the future. DM

Church Organist

With one of our super, long standing Church Organists shortly leaving HHW group, and some attending university, who are only available during holidays, we thought it sensible to ask if there are any people in the villages who play the organ and could come and play for us at services. Advanced piano players grade 6 and above, any age, are also welcome as there are some experienced organists available willing to give conversion lessons.

Would anyone interested or able to help please contact Colin, 07540 351 530 or email colin4444@yahoo.com. Thank you.

Essendon Nature Notes

The skylark has been singing joyfully in the adjoining field since April. Now, as the summer sun starts to share its warmth, walking the footpath from Essendon Hill along the River Lea and back up to West End Lane, every field has a lark. When you look up the song appears to be coming from the open skies but you would swear there is nothing there until you get your eye in and finally spot the fluttering singer high, high up in the air and then see it parachute back down. The bird itself is not in any way ostentatious in appearance with its brown streaked plumage and small crest on its head. Indeed it would seem unfair to its avian cousins if its talents as a singer were matched with commensurate beauty.

The song is a wonderful, continuous instrumental to an early morning walk. Its free-form composition seems both endless and timeless and has long captivated country folk.

Shelley perfectly captured it as 'unpremeditated art' in his famous ode.

The skylark has, of course, been in decline along with most other birds associated with agriculture, suffering the consequences of autumn rather than spring-sown cereal farming. Nevertheless there are enough about in Essendon and around for us still to herald the skylark as the background accompaniment of choice to our rolling fields.

Next time you are walking through farmland, test the eyesight of your fellow travellers and see who is first to spot one. Stop, drink in the song and proclaim the winner with a tribute from Meredith's 'Lark Ascending':

*For singing till his heaven fills,
'T is love of earth that he instils.*

Gardening in June

Because of circumstances I am writing this early. It has been an unusual Spring and early summer. Not enough rain, warm days but chilly nights so some of our regular plants have taken a little while to sort themselves out. I am finding the much lighter and drier soil in my new garden fascinating and am having fun identifying some of the existing plants I have inherited.

My new terrace at the back provides a wonderful area for my pots and the Salvias have moved happily and all of us with pots need to remember not only that they have enough water but that they enjoy a regular high-potassium feed to keep them healthy and encourage good flower displays to last longer. Repot your houseplants that have become 'root bound', perhaps moving them up one or two pot sizes. Continue to remove any fading bulb foliage, cutting back any remaining leaves from the Spring-flowering ones and, if they are in the grass, mow them.

Keep an eye on and start lifting your early potatoes and, for the first time for a long time, I don't have any and I wasn't planning any tomato plants this year either but I may weaken on that one! If you have a birdbath top it up regularly and enjoy your visitors coming for a drink or a dip! Keep sowing small amounts of your favourite salad leaves so you can keep cutting as you want them.
